Film Premieres in Prague and Munich Huge Success

After the tremendous success in the Czech Republic of almost 100.000 theatrical admissions within 5 weeks since its premiere with 1.000 guests in Prague, the feature film "Habermann" of Art-Oko Film/Karel Dirka celebrated its overwhelming German premiere in Munich on 2 November, 2010.

The premiere welcomed the film's top cast and selected guests from the film biz as well as from society and politic. Numerous journalists, photographers, radio stations and TV-Teams joint the premiere which gave the film a broad national appearance throughout various press means. The film was earned ovations of the premiere guests and the screening was closed with interviews of all top cast members on the stage.

Due to the success the film will have three more premieres in Düsseldorf (22 November), Hamburg (23 November) and Berlin (24 November) right before the official theatrical release date in Germany on 25 November, 2010. The film was even more honored by the ambassador of the Czech Republic in Germany who will be the host for about 200 selected guests from politics and society at the Berlin premiere on 24 November in the embassy of the Czech Republic in Berlin.
